IMPACT STORIES

• Branch Services/Community Engagement

- Feedback on Amelia, Branch Services Youth Librarian: "She is super helpful, endearing, and very thoughtful with recommendations. My kids loved seeing her at the schools when she came to talk about summer reading," and (from Market & Music), "Amelia has really changed the game at Northfield for us. We are there every week and love all the different crafts and scavenger hunts she comes up with. She makes going to the library so fun for us!"
- Feedback from the Suggestion Box: "I really like the new display, New Books By Favorite Authors. Makes it so easy to find something I'll like."
- Feedback from Books on the Beach: "Once again a great gathering of book lovers sharing titles to read. There are quite a few I am going to tag on Libby. I might even try an audiobook from all the recommendations!" and, "Sydney & Betsy do a wonderful job of putting together and discussing fun and interesting reads. I added a couple of books I normally wouldn't have picked out on my own, which I love. My summer reading list has already grown! ② I'm looking forward to the July & August meetings; thanks for hosting these events!"

Youth Services

- Feedback on Pride Month Crafternoon: "Amber is running an AWESOME crafternoon as I type, and one of the officers from WPD showed up to paint rocks, make bracelets, and hang out. LOVE IT!" We also received multiple positive comments about our scavenger hunt and displays of pride-themed materials.
- A Greeley School parent called to see if they could move the playdate scheduled for their rising Kindergarteners to the library after the air quality made their scheduled outdoor meet up too risky. Librarians Amber & Tom worked together to pull toys, activities, and print extra coloring pages and told them to, "...come on over!"
- The Winnetka Weeders, who care for a portion of our garden area, partnered to present a Weeders and Readers program, where they read garden-themed stories then provided a craft where participants got to plant their own seeds.

- A caregiver let us know that she's seen her little one grow and learn so much as a result of baby storytime. The toddler can sing most of the words to the songs and is even singing the hello song to her baby brother! She said she had tried Deerfield Library's storytime but came back to us because our baby storytime is so calm and soothing.
- Some general patron comments:
 - "We love how different the youth collections are from one another (Northfield vs. Winnetka). It's not just a copy and paste so the kids are able to find different things at each location and we really love that!"
 - "I really love watching the department evolve over the years to grow and meet the needs of the community. It's really cool to see how things change."
 - "I just have to tell you; the library is so wonderful. You have the best programs, everyone who works here is so nice and friendly; the library is one of the best parts of moving here!"

Adult Services

- Feedback on The Chanel Sisters with Barbara Rinsella: "Fabulous evening- wonderful presentation by Barbara! Looking forward to another one. Thank you!"
- Feedback on Teens & Money: A Parent's Guide: "Great info! Provided lots of good basics for good money habits."
- Feedback on Pan Am Stewardess Betty with Leslie Goddard: "Interesting info, well-presented, engaging. I heard history I normally would not be exposed to. Thank you for the diversity & quality of programming you offer!"
- Feedback on Pompeii: From Ashes to Archaeology with Jeff Mishur: "I'm going to Italy in the fall and visiting these sites. This presentation provided me with the history and a better understanding of the area."
- Feedback on Lake Michigan & the Chicago River: A History of Human Intervention: "Wonderful, interesting talk with great visuals! I, too, love the old maps. Kevin obviously is very knowledgeable and passionate about his subject. Would love to see him back at the library for more events. Thank you!"
- Feedback from patrons on our Pride Month Display: "Fabulous!" and, "Thank you for having this display! It is so important to have things like this, especially now!"

Digital Services

- Three pre-teen girls came back with two more friends for a second round of sewing in the Studio. The first three, who learned how to sew keepsake pockets from Annie last month, proceeded to show their new sewing skills to their two other friends, who then proceeded to make their own keepsake pockets.
- A patron who came in to explore the Studio used the embroidery machine to make sweatshirts for his family reunion. He enjoyed the experience so much that he booked another appointment so he can try out a different project.
- Two members of the Kenilworth Garden Club came in to make a gift for a retiring coworker. They had so much fun and have since been back multiple times to make other gifts for the people in their lives.
- A patron came in to laser engrave her young son's art on a cutting board that she plans to hide away and give to him as a gift when he is grown.

Patron Services

- A patron came into the library looking to use a study room, but all were currently in use. They then advised that this was their first time in the library and that they weren't clear on what we offered in terms of study spaces. Patron Services Manager Courtney gave them a tour, signed them up for a library card, then got them settled in the quiet room, where they were able to work. The patron was very thankful and looking forward to coming in again to study!
- An area teacher came in to get a card and had a huge list of books with her. While Patron Services Assistant Jeanine processed her teacher card, Youth Services Manager Anna took her list and personally found all the books for her, then brought them to the desk so she could use her new card to check them out. The patron was SO thankful for the personalized help both with her card and the books!

Marketing & PR

• We did a post to promote our youth Pride displays and received the following patron response: "As a gay Winnetkan who just had twins with his husband, I am so happy to see this. I can't wait to start bringing our family to the library!"

Program Policy

This Program Policy establishes principles intended to guide the Winnetka-Northfield Public Library District (the "District") in providing programs, classes, lectures, storytimes, discussion groups, and workshops which are consistent with the District's mission, which is to serve the intellectual, cultural, and recreational needs of the community.

Philosophy and Scope of Programs

In accordance with the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights, the District provides resources for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people within the community the District serves. This includes programs on a variety of topics that appeal to the wide array of interests in the community. Presenters and topics will not be excluded because some might find the content or speaker to be objectionable or controversial.

The District recognizes that the choice to attend programs is an individual decision and acknowledges that while one person may reject a program for themselves, they cannot determine suitability for or restrict access to events by others. Event attendance by minor children is the responsibility of parents or caregivers, who guide and oversee their child's development. District staff will not act as censors for any age group or subject matter.

District staff who create and present programs do so as part of their regular duties and are not hired as outside contractors for the programs they create and conduct. In addition to staff, the District actively partners with external organizations and community partners to develop and co-sponsor programs, which may include hiring external presenters that reflect specialized or unique expertise. Such presenters are chosen from local, regional, and national talent. The District does not endorse the content, or the views expressed by presenters or program participants.

Program offerings must support the District's mission. Programs that are inconsistent with the mission—such as commercial or partisan programs—will not be planned. All product sales in conjunction with a program must be approved, in writing, by District staff in advance.

Program Suggestions

We welcome suggestions from District residents for future programs. Suggestions, and requests to present, including author readings and signings, should be submitted via our Propose a Program form. Suggestions and requests will be considered and evaluated based on the program criteria outlined below.

Program Criteria

District staff use a variety of criteria when making decisions about programming topics, speakers, and accompanying resources, including the following:

- Patron demand and/or anticipated demand
- Cost
- Availability of suitable space
- Presenter background and qualifications in content area
- Suitability of subject and style for the intended audience
- Support of local and national school curricula
- Connection to the District community
- Importance of the subject matter
- Attendance statistics and patron feedback for similar events
- Factual content
- Timeliness and relevance to contemporary culture
- Representation of diverse interests and viewpoints
- Relationship to District collections, resources, exhibits and events

Access

All programs are open to the public, but some may be designed with specific audiences in mind, such as those intended for children and teens that are geared to their interests and needs. Adults who wish to attend an event specifically designed for children must be accompanied by a child. Tween and teen events are limited to tweens and teens only, except when they require an adult assistant or companion.

Fees

Nearly all of the District's programs are offered at no additional charge. However, some programs may require a small fee to recoup the cost of supplies. In these instances, a note will be placed in the event calendar to notify patrons when registering.

Attendance & Cancellations

The District may deem it necessary to limit attendance due to space constraints or the nature of the event. Patrons should check the online event calendar for the most current information on available spots. Once registered, the District asks patrons to be courteous of others who might be on a wait list by calling or going online to cancel in the event they are unable to attend.

There are factors beyond the District's control that may require cancellation of a scheduled program such as severe weather, building emergencies, personal issues on the part of the presenter, low registration, or other unforeseen factors. In these instances, District staff will make every effort to contact individuals who have registered. Canceled programs are not automatically rescheduled and the District reserves the right to cancel any program at any time.

Request for Reconsideration

The District welcomes expressions of opinion from residents concerning our program offerings. Residents should first address their concern with a staff member. If the concern remains unresolved, the following procedures have been developed to ensure that complaints from residents residing within the physical boundaries of the District (hereinafter, each a "Complainant") are handled in a timely and consistent manner.

- 1) The Complainant will be referred to the Manager of the Department that organized the program or, in the event they are unavailable, to the Librarian in charge, who will discuss the program with the Complainant in relation to the Library's Program Policy and the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights.
- 2) If the complaint is not resolved to the Complainant's satisfaction, the Complainant will be asked to complete the Request for Reconsideration of Programs Form and submit it to the Library Director (the "Director"). The Director will then form a committee comprised of the Director, the Manager of the Department that organized the program, and the President of the Library Board of Trustees (the "Board"). The committee will review the program and provide a written response to the Complainant once a decision has been reached. The program will remain scheduled as planned while the committee is conducting their review.
- 3) If the complaint is not resolved to the Complainant's satisfaction, the Complainant may appeal the decision to the full Board, who will consider the matter at their next regularly scheduled Board meeting and provide a written response to the patron once a decision has been reached. The program will remain scheduled as planned while the Board is considering the matter. If sufficient time does not exist to enact the escalation process prior to the event, the matter will be considered for future similar events. The Board's decision is final, and no further appeals may be made.
