Impact Stories

- Northfield- Feedback on the Edible Haunted Houses program: "What a great class! The use of treats to make the haunted house is brilliant and more practical than the store-bought kits. My son had so much fun and did an amazing job of refraining from eating the "construction" materials. As a parent, I had a great time watching him and the other kids be creative and focusing on the task at hand. Thank you for this program and all the wonderful children's programming you provide for our community. We fully take advantage of it and appreciate the time/thought the staff puts into planning and running these programs. See you all again soon!"
- Youth Services- Staff have been flexing to help Winnetka Nursery School students, parents, and staff following the sudden and unexpected closure of their facility the week of October 17th. Staff provided activities, toys, coloring pages, and other resources during the first week of the closure and have been working with the WNS team to secure space for the next month or so.
- Adult Services- Librarian Molly provided extensive computer help to a patron who recently lost her husband. She wrote Molly a thank you note saying how grateful she was that she could come to the library now because she could no longer get help with these kinds of things at home.
- Digital Services- A patron borrowed a sewing machine to work on mending clothes with her mother at her mother's assisted living facility.
- Customer Relations- A patron thanked us for getting rid of the "annoying returns chute." She said it is now much easier to return books and she no longer has to dread coming in and waiting in line!
- General- We partnered with Winnetka Scout Troop 20 on their book drive for Ghana by placing book donation boxes in our lobbies and donating weeded books from the library. We received a nice thank you call saying that the drive was a huge success and that they had lots of things to send overseas!
